

Analytics Training Website Terms and Conditions

The content of the Analytics Training website is for general information and use only. It is subject to change without notice.

Users agree to only use the website in a manner that complies with all applicable laws and regulations and is consistent with these Terms and does not infringe the rights of anyone else, nor restrict or inhibit their use and enjoyment of the website.

Intellectual Property

All information and material (including data, images, text and audio) on the website is the property of Analytics Training and/or its licensors and is subject to copyright. All trademarks on the sites are the property of Analytics Training and/or our licensors. You are entitled to view, copy and print any documents from the sites but only for your own internal business purposes. Any sale, transmission or redistribution of the sites or their content, and any copying, modification or other use of the sites or their contents for any purposes other than your own internal business purposes, is strictly prohibited.

Analytics Training's copyright and other intellectual property rights are protected by UK laws. Unauthorised use of this website may give rise to a claim for damages and/or be a criminal offence.

Disclaimers

Neither Analytics Training nor any third parties provide any warranty or guarantee as to the accuracy, timeliness, performance, completeness or suitability of the information and materials found or offered on the website for any particular purpose. The user acknowledges that such information and materials may contain inaccuracies or errors and Analytics Training expressly excludes liability for any such inaccuracies or errors to the fullest extent permitted by law.

The users use of the information or materials on this website is entirely at their own risk, for which Analytics Training is not liable.

Analytics Training makes every effort to check and test material at all stages of production. Analytics Training encourages users to run anti-virus programmes on all materials downloaded from the internet. Analytics Training does not accept responsibility for any loss, disruption or damage to the user's data and/or computer system which occurs whilst using material derived from the website.

The website may contain links to third party websites. Such links are provided for the user's convenience to provide further information. If you decide to access any third party sites or resources linked to the sites, you do so entirely at your own risk. You acknowledge and agree that Analytics Training shall not be responsible or liable, directly or indirectly, for any damage or loss caused or alleged to be caused by or in connection with use of or reliance on any information, goods or services available on or through any external links from the sites.

Analytics Training is not responsible for the content nor does the inclusion of the link imply endorsement of the material on those websites or any association with their operators.

Intended audience

The Analytics Training website is directed to, and is intended for use by, people residing in the United Kingdom only. We make no representation that content available on or through the Sites is appropriate for use or available outside of the United Kingdom.

Changes to the Terms

Analytics Training may change these Terms at any time, in which case the amended Terms will be posted on the Analytics Training website and will apply from the date posted.

If any provisions of these Terms are determined to be illegal, invalid or otherwise unenforceable by reasons of the laws of any country, then so far as these Terms apply within that country in which those provisions are illegal, invalid or unenforceable those provisions shall be severed or deleted and the remaining provisions shall survive, remain in full force and effect and continue to be binding and enforceable.

Complaints

Analytics Training takes pride in its customer service and endeavours to provide the highest quality services and products. Analytics Training takes any complaints very seriously. Complaints about any of Analytics Training's products or services should be made to Annie Miller, Director of Operations (annie@analytics-training.com) who will take steps to resolve the issue as quickly as possible. Analytics Training's Complaints Procedure is available at www.analytics-training.com/complaints-procedure.
